DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-14, drawn to A Material, classified in class 442, subclass 327+.
- II. Claims 15-26, drawn to An Absorbent Article, classified in class 604, subclass 385.28.
- III. Claim 27, drawn to A Method of Making an Absorbent Product, classified in class 156, subclass 229.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions III and (I and II) are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product not requiring the specifics of the Groups I and II claims, e.g. without a Young's modulus of 4.5 psi or a flap with a tensioning force in its long direction, which claims serve as evidence claims.

Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require a Young's modulus up to about 4.5 psi/% in a first axis of a material as claimed in the subcombination claims which serve as evidence claims. The subcombination has separate utility such as a flap extending in the transverse direction of a garment.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification which would lead to diverging fields of search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

If the Group II claims are elected:

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: one of the species of Figures 3-5, the species of Figure 7, the species of Figures 8-11 and the species of figures 8-10 and 12 and one of the species of the material of claim 23, the species of the material of claim 24 and the species of the material of claim 25.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect 1) a single disclosed species of the Figures and 2) a single disclosed species of the material for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 15-16, 20 and 22 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

For example, Applicants could elect the Group II claims, the species of Figures 3-5 and the species of material of claim 23 to be responsive.

A telephone call was made to Mr. Roland Norris on August 22, 2003 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
